IKUHIRO KUBOTA SHIHAN (AIKIKAI 8TH DAN)

With more than 50 years experience in Aikido, Kubota Shihan is the head instructor and founder of Nara AikiKai in Japan, and is also supervising many dojos around the world. His principle teacher and friend is Tada Hiroshi Shihan (9th Dan).

SHIGERU SUZUKI SHIHAN (AIKIKAI 7TH DAN)

With more than 50 years experience in Aikido, Suzuki Shihan commenced studies at Kobayashi Dojo under the AikiKai Headquarters in 1968, following the 2nd Doshu, Kisshomaru Ueshiba, and the late Okumura and Nishio Shihan's. He established the development of Aikido in Ehime prefecture, Japan, which has long term links with Denmark Aikido Dojos.

KUNIO YOSHIMOTO SHIHAN (AIKIKAI 7TH DAN)

With more than 50 years experience in Aikido, Yoshimoto Shihan teaches Aikido both in Japan and around the world, following the late Nishio Shihan for some 40 years. In 2015 he was awarded the Shiga Prefecture Martial Art contribution award for life time achievements.
